Depending on the recruit's email filter settings, it may be necessary for them to permit email messages from @account.square-enix.com. Changelog 13 Nov. This is because some items and resources have a specific objective in the game, such as increasing statistics and they are required to complete certain quests. After creating a character, you need to complete an introductory tutorial quest to help you understand the game's dynamics, mechanics, and controls. Heavensward features are retroactive, meaning that if you have recruited friends before the implementation of the feature you will receive your rewards. Rewards will be sent to your Delivery Moogle in-game. These rewards are only awarded once per service account. 1. Introduced in Heavensward (3.0), when players recruit friends to play FFXIV, they will earn Gold Chocobo Feathers. © Jagex Crystal Shards can also be used to create enhanced crystal keys for the Elven Crystal Chest. 2. Recruit a Friend System in FFXIV The Recruit a Friend campaign allows players to invite their friends to join the world of Eorzea and receive in-game rewards as their friends play the game, with more rewards available depending on the number of friends you recruit, as well as the amount of game time they add to their account. How to Recruit a Friend in FFXIV The Recruit a Friend system is fairly simple for FFXIV, relying on the use of a recruitment code that the recruiter can give to their friends. In-Game Rewards Rewards for Recruiters First Recruit Rewards 5 Gold Chocobo Feathers Ballroom Etiquette - Improper Greetings Rewards for Each Subsequent Friend (Up to Five) 5 Gold Chocobo Feathers Rewards for friend's subscription length Recruiters' will also receive rewards based on how long the friend with the longest subscription period has been subscribed. 3. You also have to ensure that your Thieving level is at least at level 85 to pickpocket, but preferably, it should be level 99. 3.2. Entering Recruitment Codes Once a recruitment code has been given to the player, they will need to head to the MogStation and enter the code there. Make sure the recruit does not have a subscription active or has not subscribed in the past, otherwise you cannot recruit them. The codes that you generate are only valid for 120 days, at which point they expire and can no longer be used. 3.4. Step-by-Step Recruit a Friend Guide In the interest of simplicity, we have put an ordered list below for players to follow for the simplest method of completing the Recruit a Friend process. Proceed to the FINAL FANTASY XIV: Mog Station * The recruitment code cannot be entered after a subscription has been established. 4. Every Crystal Shard added to a piece of crystal equipment provides 100 charges, up to a maximum of 20 000. Once you have the code for your friend, give it to them to enter when making their account on the MogStation. When the friend creates his or her account and registers the recruitment code on Mog Station. Recruit a Friend Limitations and Warnings Recruit a Friend programs are always fairly rigid in the rules they feature in order to prevent abuse, and FFXIV is no exception. You will still be able to enter the code if you have added a subscription method, but you are still in your Free Trial period and the subscription has not yet officially begun. If you are good at pickpocketing, you can get between 26 and 28 Crystal Shards per hour. Players receive between 10 and 16 Crystal Shards per hour with this method. Existing players can send their friends their recruitment code. Rewards for Friends Recruits will also receive their own rewards once they have purchased/subscribed for at least 30 days of play time. That being said, Crystal Shards and Crystal Dust can be used to create valuable tradable items. Players can also use them to upgrade potions. 2021: Guide added. There are 15 reward possibilities with specific drop rates. Players can enjoy role-playing and adventure elements in this popular video game, Old School RuneScape (OSRS). They are also very valuable items, and luckily they can be acquired using a number of methods. All equipment pieces may be sung from a certain type of crystal seed and varying quantities of Crystal Shards by the player with the use of a singing bowl. Recruit goes to the MogStation and enters the recruitment code. Why are items important? It is noteworthy that this tutorial only teaches you the basics and that there are numerous items, gear, and skills that you need to procure. Recruit a Friend Rewards in FFXIV For a full breakdown of the rewards and the stage at which you receive them, as well as what certain rewards can be used for, you can head to our dedicated rewards page, which is linked below. Exclusive rewards are awarded both to the recruit and the friend when the friend subscribes to the game. Crystal Shards have various uses in Old School RuneScape (OSRS), and luckily they can be acquired quite easily. Register to play FINAL FANTASY XIV. Alternatively, you can compete in Prifddinas' Agility Course, but you have to at least be on level 75 in Agility before you can start. One of the items you can find in the game is Crystal Shards, which are necessary for creating and charging crystal equipment through crystal singing. Recruit registers an account. Check out our General Discussion Forum! 1 comment 1. The game invites players to create and customise a character before they step into the persistent world of the game. Recruit adds game time as they wish. This means that players cannot sell these items to earn gold and they cannot be given to another player. If you pre-pay for your gametime with a code, both the recruiter and recruit will be able to claim the corresponding reward immediately after redeeming the code. Both players collect their rewards in-game at a Delivery Moogle. Recruitment codes are valid for 120 days after they are generated. Feathers are earned for each friend recruited as well as the number of days they have subscribed. The first method you can use to obtain Crystal Shards is through pickpocketing. It is worth noting that you need specific items and materials to craft certain gear, weapons, and accessories. Purchase a subscription, and continue playing the game to accumulate subscription days which count toward exclusive in-game rewards. Items can also make the game's content easier as your character can become stronger when they use them. Recruiter generates recruitment code from MogStation. Recruiter Friend Both you and your friend will receive exclusive recruitment rewards based on your friend's number of accumulated subscription days. Show more Show less Need any help? Please be sure that the recruitment code is entered before then. While you are exploring Prifddinas, you can pickpocket Elves, but you must make sure that you do not get caught in the act. An easier way to acquire Crystal Shards is through woodcutting, but this should be done in Prifddinas Forest. You can interact with both the environment and other players as you progress in the game. Recruits joining the game via RAF will not be put on your Friends list automatically. Though woodcutting does not have a base level requirement, it is advised that you are at least on level 60. Recruiter sends recruitment code to recruit. Players need Crystal Shards to create and exchange Crystal Equipment, which is a range of degradable weapons and armour made from Elven Crystal. Note that you can only use a recruitment code if you have already registered a retail version of the game to the account and have not yet paid for a subscription. 3.3. Once the recruitment code has been added, the new player can then add game time to their account as they wish, which will in turn grant rewards for both the recruiter and recruit. You can only generate a new code once every 3 hours. You should keep in mind that you do not only need to acquire Crystal Shards to craft Crystal Equipment.
